Lisa's Bio

Rabbinic Pastor Cantor Lisa Levine RYT500 is a nationally known composer, recording artist, author and worship artist. After earning her BA in Music from UCI and studying in Israel at the Hebrew University and Reuben Academy she went on to HUC-JIR DFSSM in New York, where she was ordained in 1989. She received her Doctorate in Sacred Music from HUC in 2014 after 25 years of dedicated service to the Jewish people. Lisa has spent her long and esteemed career building bridges through music and bringing people of all faiths and cultural diversity together in prayer and song.

Lisa's original music catalogue includes 10 acclaimed CD's and 8 Songbooks. Her Choral Series is published by Transcontinental Music Publications and her music appears in over two dozen compilations. Reb Lisa's poems appear in the WRJ Torah Commentary, WRJ Centennial Covenant Book and Georgetown Hospital's Lombardy Voices. Her song "Ki Anu Amecha" was commissioned by the American Conference of Cantors for the new Reform HHDAY Mishkan HaNefesh and Esau Enai part of the new Reform HHDAY collection. Lisa is the creator and author of "Yoga Shalom" a unique prayer embodiment Book/CD/DVD practice which is popular around the world. She is the voice of prayer in Hebrew In Harmony curriculum with Behrman House Books. Her most recent CD recordings are "Bridge to Peace" songs for chaplaincy, peace and healing and "Jospel Jam" which tells the story through song of Jewish Gospel. Lisa's first collection of poetry "Heart of Light: Poems of Longing, Loss and Life" with artwork by Julie Silver was recently published and is available on Amazon.

In 2018 Lisa received Ordination as Rabbinic Pastor through Aleph Alliance for Jewish Renewal. She is a JSSA (Jewish Social Services Agency) Chaplain and shares Music and Chaplaincy in conferences around the country. Reb Lisa is a member of the American Conference of Cantors, OHALAH, Women Cantor's Network, NAJC Neshama and NewCAJE. She serves on the Board of Ezra Uganda Assistance and is the Co-President of the RPA Rabbinic Pastoral Association of Aleph. Lisa is a 500 hour RYT and teaches Yoga Shalom at Home weekly via zoom with a growing following. Lisa freelances leading worship and yoga around the world and serves as Chaplain for Jewish Social Services Agency and Riderwood Jewish Community in Montgomery County, MD. She also serves as part-time Cantor of Temple Beth Israel in York, PA. While not zooming around the world sharing her music and yoga, she enjoys gardening, cooking, canning and tennis!
